DETAILED ACTION

Examiner has considered the Information Disclosure Statement submitted by the applicant on 9/29/2005 and 9/5/2006.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kavanagh (US 7,003,598). Kavanagh teaches an interactive DVD player system having following limitations:

Regarding claim 1, Kavanagh discloses an interactive application using DVD player that generates images on TV; application images with encoded addresses on DVD; interface unit with IR (Infra-red) transmitter and user input device; readable memory device for determining DVD image address responsive to the user input which determined by the processor (col 1, lines 37-53).

Regarding claims 2-3 and 6-7, interface unit comprise a memory and transmit address responsive to user activation of the at least one input device in the memory (col 5, lines 6-17).

Regarding claims 4-5, interface unit transmit an address responsive to the stored information and comprises a timer or a clock (col 2, lines 42-44 and col 4, lines 58-59).

Regarding claims, 8-25, Kavanagh further teaches interface unit has a processor and determines the content of an image display on TV responsive to the timer (col 2, lines 42-44 and col 4, lines 58-59); element on the image is responsive to the elapse time (col 8, lines 60-65); generated images on TV by the DVD comprises optical code and code reader (col 3, lines 3-7); optical code associated with audio signal and its responsive to the user input (col 2, lines 24-26), it is inherent in a DVD or CD player or reader to have optical code reader; audio code is associated with image signal (col 8, lines 28-35); TV does not display the image address that transmitted by the interface unit and the interface unit generates a signal if user input is needed (col 7, lines 41-57); system comprises a keyboard or joystick and also comprises readable memory device as DVD, CD or memory card (col 3, lines 65-67, col 4 lines 1-19 and col 2, lines 45-55).
